

Function & Performance of the Equine Foot

A 2-Day Introduction to Applied Equine Podiatry

Wavendon Grange, Old Dalby, Leicestershire LE14 3LW

18th—19th May 2023

The Course includes:

- ◆ Interactive lectures
- ◆ Dissection
- ◆ Assessment of cadaver feet
- ◆ Problem solving

Instructor: Siobhan Dillon

- ◆ Over 40 years equine experience
- ◆ Over 10 years in the foot care business
- ◆ Multiple teaching and coaching qualifications

An educational and interesting 2 days that is very likely to give a fresh perspective to the function of the equine digit and factors contributing to its performance

www.siobhandillon.net 07818063222 www.equinepodiatry.com

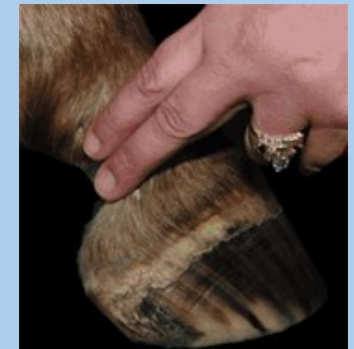

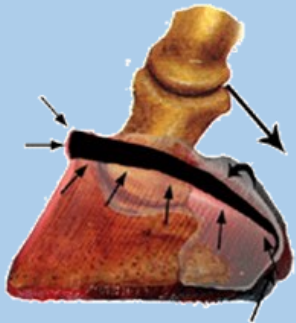

Function & Performance of the Equine Foot

A 2-Day Introduction to Applied Equine Podiatry

What you will gain from the course

- ◆ Identify AEP by knowledge of its principles and theories
- ◆ Start to visualise the internal foot
- ◆ Identify the types of forces different structures are adapted to sustain
- ◆ Recognise strong and weak structures
- ◆ Understand how management and use can protect and enhance performance

Farriers:

A fresh perspective to help with your questions about foot distortions

Trainers:

Appreciate how movement patterns can affect foot health and visa versa

Bodyworkers:

View the anatomy of the foot and understand how your work supports foot health and visa versa

Horse owners:

Become more proactive with your care to enhance function and performance of your horse

Course Fee: $225 (approx. £180)

www.siobhandillon.net 07818063222 www.equinepodiatry.com